

DCSA Wins Assorted Flavas 2007!

Contributed by DCSA
Sunday, 23 September 2007
Last Updated Wednesday, 26 September 2007

On Sunday, DCSA performed at the 3rd annual cultural exhibition "Assorted Flavas" presented by Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority Inc. And for the second time of this event DCSA won First Place. Special thanks to the dancers and choreographer Jasmyeal Camacho! Congratulations!

For more information click on Read More.
The 3rd annual cultural exhibition like no other

Assorted Flavas began in hopes of bringing forth the myriad of culture our university has to offer. It will be night where various organizations will have the opportunity to show case what is unique about them and their background. Whether it be through dance, song, skit, step, or spoken word there are no boundaries. We hope to enlighten the general public about the uniqueness and beauty of our differences.

The proceeds will once again go towards our philanthropy, The Y Achievers Program-Developing Hispanic Leaders.

The purpose of the YMCACHEIVERS programs is to assist the Hispanic youth in preparing, pursuing and achieving post-secondary education and career goals of their choice. Y Achievers activities are designed to ignite interest, motivate success and provide exposure to positive and productive life choices.

ADMISSION IS FREE, HOWEVER DONATIONS ARE APPRECIATED!!!!!!